7. Colonel Crossman, of the National War College faculty, has recommended to his Commandant that the proposal to convene a CIA panel in our headquarters auditorium for the student body and faculty of the 1970-71 class (number about 175) be disapproved. After Colonel Crossman made an on-site visit to Headquarters recently, he concluded that the logistical problems involved would be more disadvantageous than any apparent advantages that might accrue. The panel session chaired by Colonel White will continue to be offered in the NWC auditorium, followed a day or so later by a DCI presentation to the NWC and ICAF classes meeting jointly. A proposal by [] -- that CIA arrange a program in spring for NWC students selected for assignments in the metropolitan area upon graduation -- may be accepted. ✓
